INTRODUCTORY.

THE third issue of the DIRECTORY OF THE ANCIENT ORDER OF HIBERNIANS is presented for your consideration. As to its usefulness and artistic merit, we ask the Order to be the Judge.

In point of accuracy, every effort has been exerted to make this volume surpass all previous issues, and we believe the members of the Order will find it to be more convenient and complete.

New Divisions, lately organized, and Counties and Divisions coming in too late for classification, will be found in latter part of Directory.

In securing advertisements, we have selected only those firms we know to be first-class in their respective branches, and worthy of the patronage of the Order.
